

Congratulations Scholarship Recipients

CHS Northern Plains is committed to strengthening our home town communities. With this, we have awarded five local high school, college-bound, seniors each with a $1,000 scholarship towards furthering their education. We congratulate each scholarship recipient and know they will accomplish great things in their next adventure.

James Bowar

Hometown:
Faulkton, SD

Parents:
Timothy & Kelly Bowar

College Attending:
South Dakota State University
Brookings, SD

Career Aspirations:
After obtaining an Agribusiness Degree, James aspires to work as an ag loan officer. He also hopes to one day have his own farming operation.

John Deurmier

Hometown:
Eureka, SD

Parents:
Mike & Joann Deirmier

College Attending:
Lake Area Tech
Watertown, SD

Career Aspirations:
After finishing his Large Animal Tech Degree, John plans to return to the family cattle/crop farm & ranch.

Jack McCrory

Hometown:
Linton, ND

Parents:
John & Lisa McCrory

College Attending:
North Dakota State University
Fargo, ND

Career Aspirations:
After acquiring a degree in Agriculture Economics, Jack plans to return to the family farm and ranch.

Kathleen Schmidt

Hometown:
Ashley, ND

Parents:
Jason & Jessica Schmidt

College Attending:
North Dakota State University
Fargo, ND

Career Aspirations:
Long-term goals for Kathleen is to achieve a PhD in Pathology to someday study how bacteria affects the environment, medicine & agriculture.

Addie Schnabel

Hometown:
Ashley, ND

Parents:
James & Pamela Schnabel

College Attending:
University of Jamestown
Jamestown, ND

Career Aspirations:
After achieving his degree in Business Administration, Addie plans to return to the family swine & beef farm as well as pursuing a career within a financial institution.

We're proud to add value to farms and ranches across the country.

Your local, loyal cooperative; that has been trusted for generations.