

For further information,
Contact: Mandy M. Fischer
Northern Plains
(605) 765-2476
mandy.fischer@chsinc.com

Phillip Wanner

Carl Entzie

Kendall Fey

Shannon Schilder

Bobbie Till

Northern Plains Scholarships Announced

(Gettysburg, South Dakota), May 14, 2012 – Phillip Wanner, Carl Entize, Kendall Fey, Shannon Schilder, and Bobbie Till and recently received a $1000 scholarship from Northern Plains as part of the company's scholarship program for high school seniors.

Wanner, Entzie, Fey, Schilder, Till were among the five high school seniors given scholarships on behalf of local Northern Plains member owners.

Phillip Wanner, the son of Scott Wanner of Wishek, plans to study Crop and Weed Science at North Dakota State University.

Kendall Fey, son of Lyle and Carol Fey of Ashley, plans to study Computer Information Systems at the University of Mary, Bismarck.

Carl Entize, son of Theresa Entrzie of Ashley, plans to study Civil Engineering at North Dakota State University.

Shannon Schilder, daughter of Brent and Carol Schilder of Faulkton, plans to study Ag Business at South Dakota State University.

Bobbie Till, daughter of George and Lisa Till of Dupree, plans to study Pre-Professional Vet Medicine at Black Hills State University.

Scholarships were given to applicants whose high school academic performance is high, and have demonstrated the qualities of leadership, industry, integrity and good high school and community citizenship.

“We are proud to support tomorrow’s leaders,” says Todd Oster, general manager Northern Plains. “Scholarships are one way that Northern Plains continues our commitment to be leaders in the community.”

Northern Plains (www.northernplainscoop.com) is a diversified farmer owned cooperative offering grain, agronomy, feed and energy products and services. Headquartered in Gettysburg, SD, they serve more than 5,200 active customers through their eight locations in north central South Dakota and south central North Dakota.

